DEDICATION

DEDICATION

We, the Cinderella Class of 1951,

do hereby dedicate

this, our last edition,

to those who have been so understanding and patient throughout our years of erring and learning—

Our Parents!

FOREWORD

Cinderella has been brought before the Councilors of the Court, who will lead her through her years of education and prepare her for her entrance at the Grand Ball. In her freshman year, she entered this court unaware of the many tribulations and enjoyments that lay ahead.

Her sophomore year was next, and this saw her growing and becoming accustomed to the many court legends and traditions which she had to follow. In her junior year, she, along with a field of many others, found herself an important pumpkin in this court.

Now, in her senior year, she is preparing to go on to a greater era of life, and so, she publishes with her class the definitive record of their high school career — The Review of 1951!

HISTORY

Cinderella has had a wonderful time for herself in the past four years. This Cinderella did not have a very hard time getting to the Ball or to any other of her class events. In her freshman year, she attended afternoon dances planned by the President, John Lazarz; Vice-President, Sam Sousa; Secretary, Betty Ann Tourville; and Treasurer, Norma LaFlamme.

Cinderella had a wonderful meal at the Sophomore Banquet, and again she also attended afternoon dances. This was made possible by President Sam Sousa, who was succeeded by Vice-President, Judith Dostal; Secretary Joan Oliveira; and Treasurer Barbara June White.

Cinderella enjoyed herself at her first Junior evening dance at the "Triple J Ranch." Later on in the year, she was asked to the long awaited "Cinderella Ball", an invitation which she accepted with pleasure. She knew the competent class officers — President, John Lazarz; Vice-President, Judith Dostal; Secretary, Norma LaFlamme; and Treasurer, Barbara June White. The committees they chose planned an excellent "Prom".

Cinderella finally reached her height of happiness when she became a senior at Ludlow High School. At this time, Cinderella went to the "Cornfield Shuffle", and she was also a star of the senior show, "Hit or Miss", Officers for the year were President John Lazarz; Vice-President James Wilkie; Secretary Helen Harasik; and Treasurer Joseph Zych. As we go to press, Cinderella hears rumors of a post-Lenten dance, the 1951 Junior Promenade, Class Night, Kiddies' Day, Ivy Day, and Graduation.

THE WILL

According to the statutes and laws of Wonderland, we, the Cinderella Class, being of sound mind and body and duly influenced by our fairy godmothers, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

Collectively, we bequeath:

To the Faculty:

The magic wand to change the BIG DEVILS into little ANGELS.

To the Juniors:

The clock to remind them of the short time they have to spend in L. H. S.

To the Sophomores:

Cinderella's Coach to carry them to their Grand Ball.

To the Freshmen:

The mice, lizards, and pumpkin to change with them as they change through the years from scorned freshmen to the glorious position of seniors.

PROPHECY

Cinderella's Fairy Godmother looks into her Crystal Ball and foretells the Ballroom scene for 1971:

Irene Alexander — achieving fame as a dancer in Cinderella's court.

Mary Augusto — top roller-skating performer, having obtained all her practice at Our Lady of Fatima Recreational Center.

John Barlow — through trial and error, John has finally reached the position of head bookkeeper for the Royal Treasury.

Pauline Belanger — first Woman Senator from Ludlow. Her training was provided during her high school career.

Albert Bobowiec — "Buster" is now the Admiral of the Royal Navy.

Katherine Brown — the only red head in the entire court.

Joseph Cavallaro — Assistant Prime Minister of the Prince's kingdom.

Roland Chenaille — because of his nickname "Lolly", he went into the candy business and is now manufacturing giant-sized lollipops for the Royal Sweet Shop.

Elias Costa — a very quiet lad, but a terror on the royal soccer field and among the ladies of the court.

John Costa — through his flirtatious manner, he has achieved the title of "Royal Flirt".

Elsie DelMastro — because of her love for the Navy, she resigned from the court to sail the seven seas.

Judith Dostal — through her excellency in stenography, Judy is now Court Stenographer.

Orea Dumais — after breaking many hearts, she has finally found her Prince Charming.

Lawrence Esteves — a famous hero of the Royal Navy.

Henry Folvi — known to all his students as "Professor" Folvi, he surprises all of us with his teaching ability.

Arlindo Fonseca — during his high school career, he was grinned upon by all his class-mates; now he has become chief typist of the Royal Archives.

George Garrow — amazed his fellow classmates by becoming the fattest man of the court.

Kamila Gil, Janice Houghton — by their shy manners, they remain the two mysteries of the court.

Phyllis Goodreau — because of her excellent ability to drive a car, she is now taking a course in aviation at the Royal Airport.

Claire Gravel — is still Pauline's best friend and Madame Senator's official receptionist.

Robert Gregoire — from his successful fox farm, he has become the only millionaire of the class of 1951!

Frances Grybosh — through her mother's guidance, Frances has become Court Couturiere.

Charles Guerta — world famous after his debut at Carnegie Hall.

Stanley Haluch — following in his father's footsteps, he is still delivering milk to the Royal Palace.

Helen Harasik — one of the best dressed women in Cinderella's court.

Barbara Henderson, Almeda King — joined their musical talents and are now co-conductors of the Royal Symphonic Orchestra.

Dolores Kivior, Alice Makowicz — they are the only two teachers in the Royal court who give instructions in Square Dancing.

Norma LaFlamme — keeping the youngsters of the court in good physical condition by her Physical Education courses.

Daniel LaMontagne — still a bachelor and living a very happy life with a Harem of his own!

Jeannette Langevin, Edward Lavigne — after many broken engagements, they have finally decided to get married.

Barbara Lapointe — because of her understanding of people, she is Court Consultant.

John Lazarz — has become Prime Minister of The Kingdom!

Sylvia Leite — has obtained world fame as a beautician due to her private lessons.

Peter Lewicki — still holding the position of Court Midget.

Edwin Makowiec — on his first cruise, Ed became so sea-sick he joined the Royal Navy's Air Force.

Francis Markert — took a course in public speaking and has become an important orator of the Court.

Jacqueline Marshall — through Miss Hubbell's instructions, Jackie is a very well known artist.

John Martins — Court Jester.

Mary Martins — because of her persuasive ways, Mary is the most successful business woman in Cinderella's Court.

Henry McVeigh — caused great commotion in the court by using his first name, Alexander.

PROPHECY

- Katherine Melnyck — because of her unusual giggle, she can now be heard on the radio on "Cinderella Weekend."
- Mary Monteiro — her dazzling figure has made her chief model at Sears.
- Richard Morin — has amazed all his friends by becoming six feet tall.
- Charles Morton — his nickname "Chick" affected him so that he now operates a very profitable chicken farm and supplies the Royal Kitchen with eggs!
- Manuel Moraes — having been chosen the handsomest man in the class of 1951, he is now posing for Arrow Collar ads.
- John Nascimento — Little John, or "Pal" as he is known to his friends, is captain of the Royal Soccer team.
- Americo Natario — his heavy weight changes "Doug's" interest from football to boxing and he now holds the kingdom's heavyweight title.
- Dorothea Nunes — heads Cinderella's ballet troupe.
- Joan Oliveira — has opened branches of Jessie's Kiddyland all over the United States.
- Shirley Ouellette — Official nurse for His Majesty's household.
- Richard Ostrowski — through his persuasive ways, Dick now is a well-to-do business man.
- Raymond Pasquini — discovered he liked school so much he is now a student at A. I. C.
- Ralph Pereira — his nickname "Pluto" influenced his life so that he has just returned from a rocket trip to the planet from which his nickname comes.
- Phyllis Pianowski — her interest in Polka Records has won for her her position as exclusive Disc Jockey for Polka Records.
- Barbara Podosek — studied so hard in bookkeeping 45, she now holds the position of Court Accountant.
- James Queiros — the only boy who graduated from Ludlow High in the Pro Merito Society in 1951, he is Court Wizard.
- Frances Rachmaciej — being so smart in Miss Saulnier's English Class, where definitions were always required, she has edited the new edition of Webster's Dictionary.
- Violet Reid — because of her many experiences in the field of fighting, she recently won a contest at the Valley Arena and is soon to be seen at the Royal Arena.
- Raymond Santini — still winning many awards because of his outstanding bowling ability.
- Florence Santos — teaching music at Cinderella's School of Music.
- Jean Sergneri — winning the title of "Homemaker of 1971."
- Joseph Silva — one of the most popular ladies' men in the entire court.
- Priscilla Silva — a prominent nurse in the armed services of the realm.
- Angie Sorcinelli — because of Angie's ability to get along with people, she has become one of the most important social workers in the Court.
- Anita Sorrell — was so successful as a salesgirl during her High School career that she now owns McLellan's branch store in Cinderella's little village.
- Isabel Stephen — because of her ability to sew, Izzy now is a very famous fashion designer of Cinderella's wardrobe.
- Betty Tourville — her keen interest in English has led her to a professorship in English at the University of Massachusetts.
- Marjorie Truchan — after many attempts, Margie finally achieved her goal, baking a successful chocolate cake daily, and is now chief baker in Cinderella's Kitchen.
- Barbara White — because of her ability to edit the Review, Barbara now is editor of the Royal Memoirs.
- Earl White — took over Phil Green's orchestra, and is now featured at all the entertainments in the Royal Palace.
- Ronald Whyte — took over his father's position and is keeper of the Royal Exchequer.
- James Wilkie — voted the "All Around Athlete of the Year 1971," at a ceremony held in the Royal Sports Palace.
- Joseph Zych — Joe's fame in playing the accordion has spread throughout the kingdom, and he is requested to play at all celebrations held in the Royal Dance Garden.

POEM

Once upon a time not long ago
There appeared in the halls of this school
A group of sweet, young Cinderellas
And their Prince Charmings, all ridiculed.

We, the Cinderellas and Prince Charmings,
Worked long and hard under watchful eyes.
We hoped, planned, and imagined that soon
We would rise in esteem, but we sighed.

Gaining knowledge and lasting friends,
We continued on our lowly way —
Knowing that soon in the future
There would come our lucky day.

It didn't take long for it to appear,
And when we attended the King's Grand Ball,
We were helped by our fairy godmothers,
Disguised as teachers, one and all.

Now we've come to the end of our adventure
And recall the things that we've done.
We leave Cinderella behind us
And emerge the Class of '51.

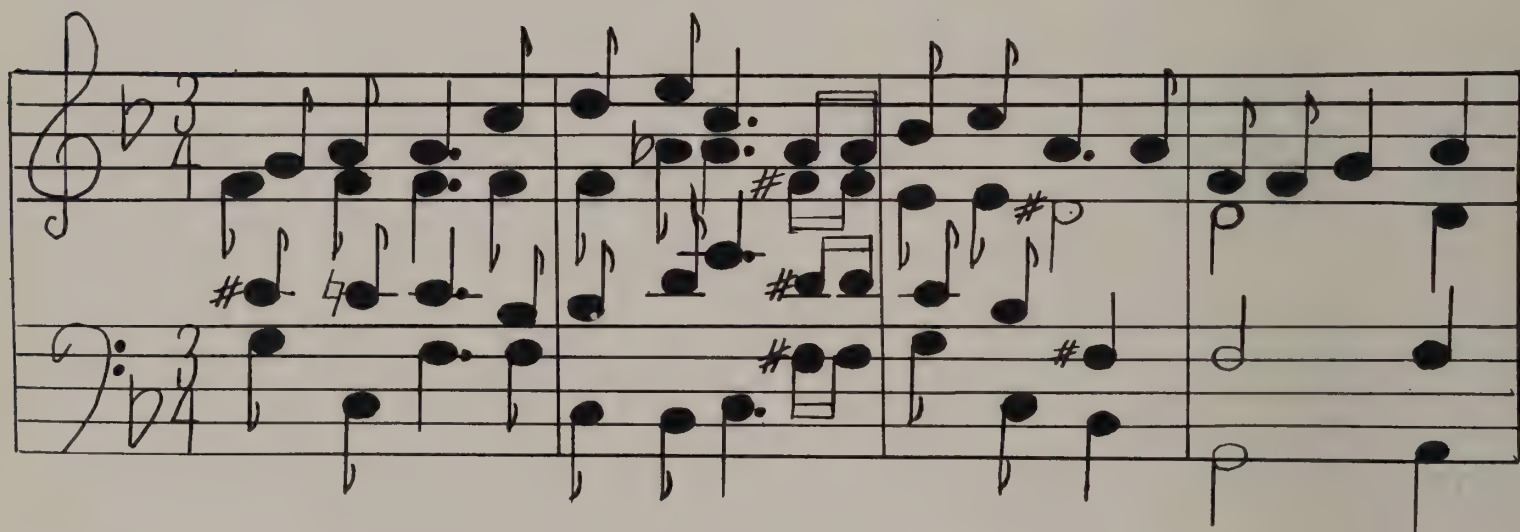

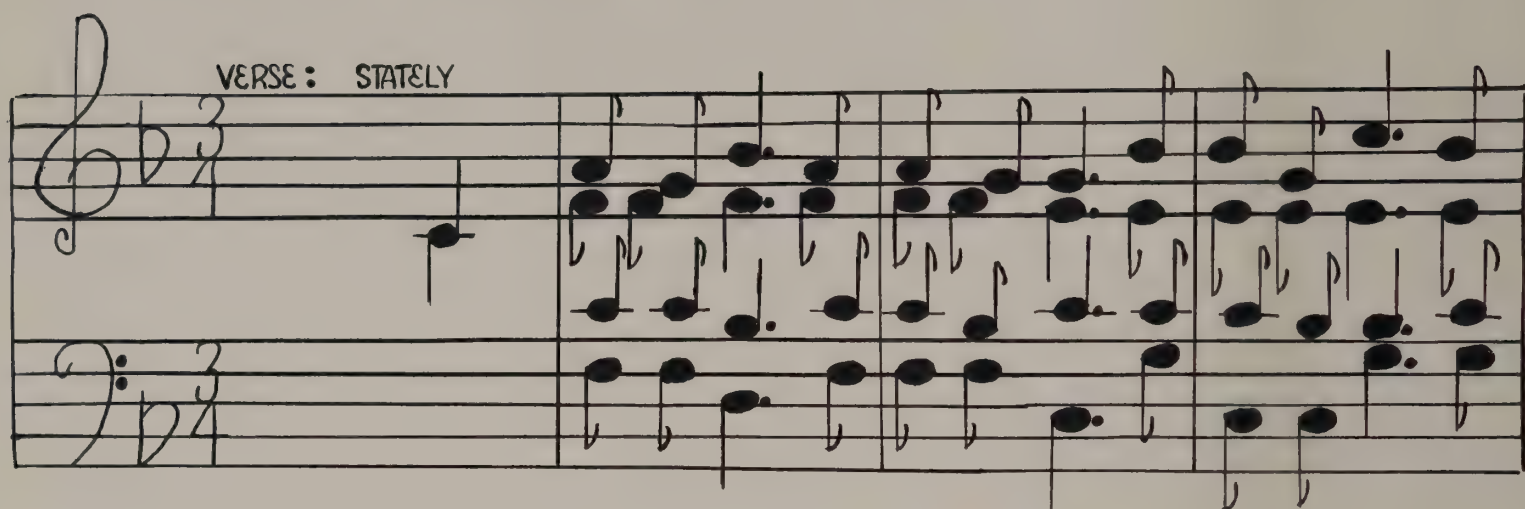

Betty A. Tourville '51

CINDERELLA'S THEME SONG

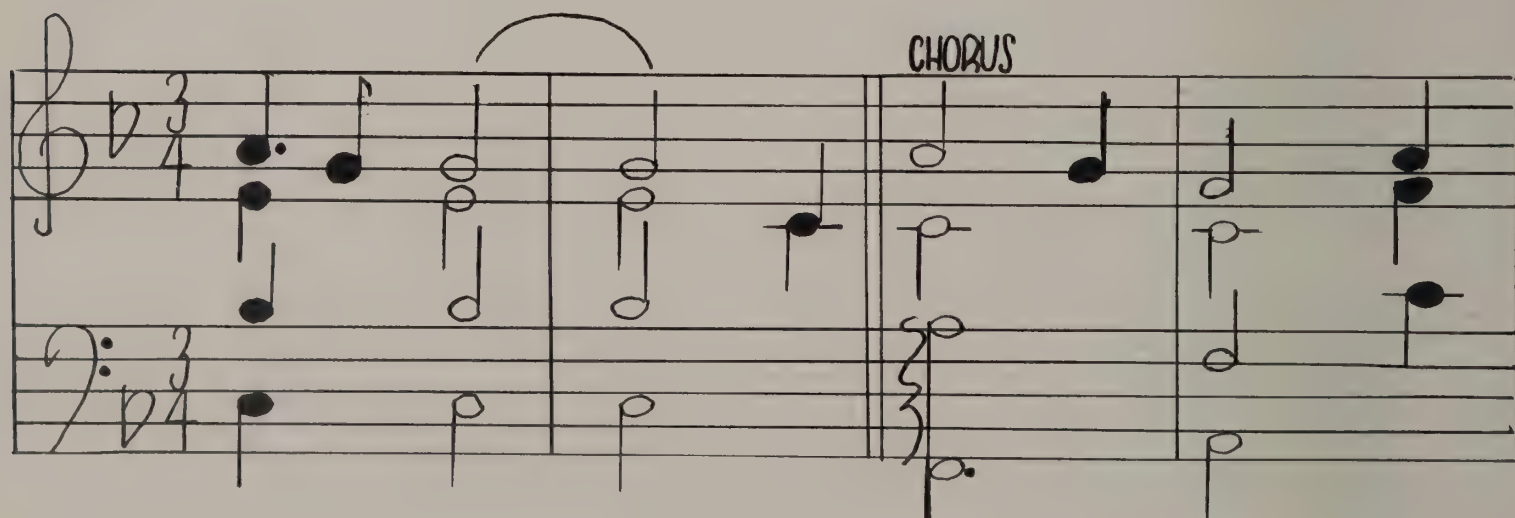

Lyrics by: Isabel Stephen

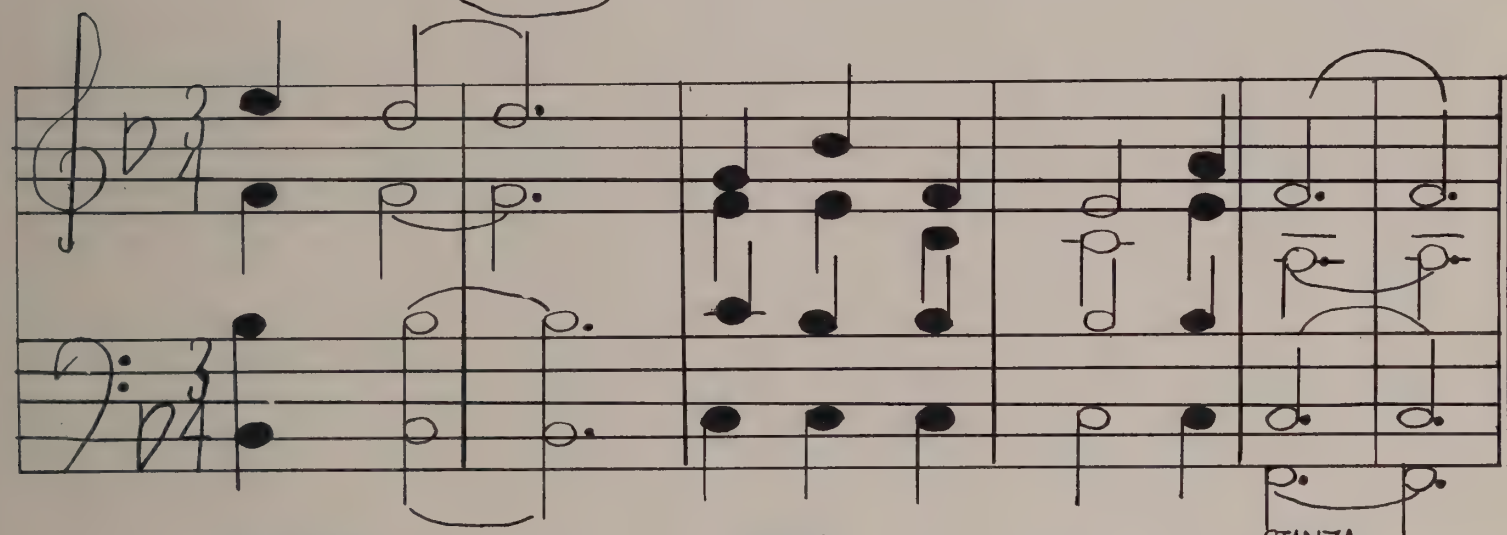

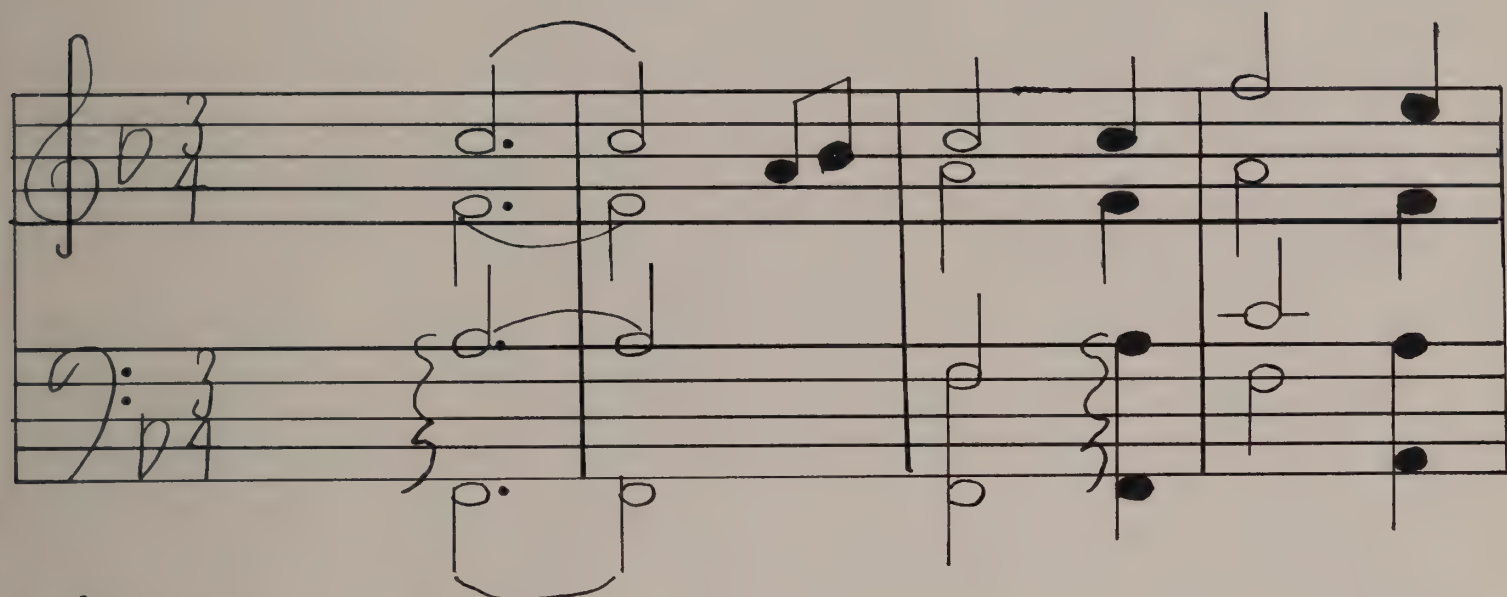

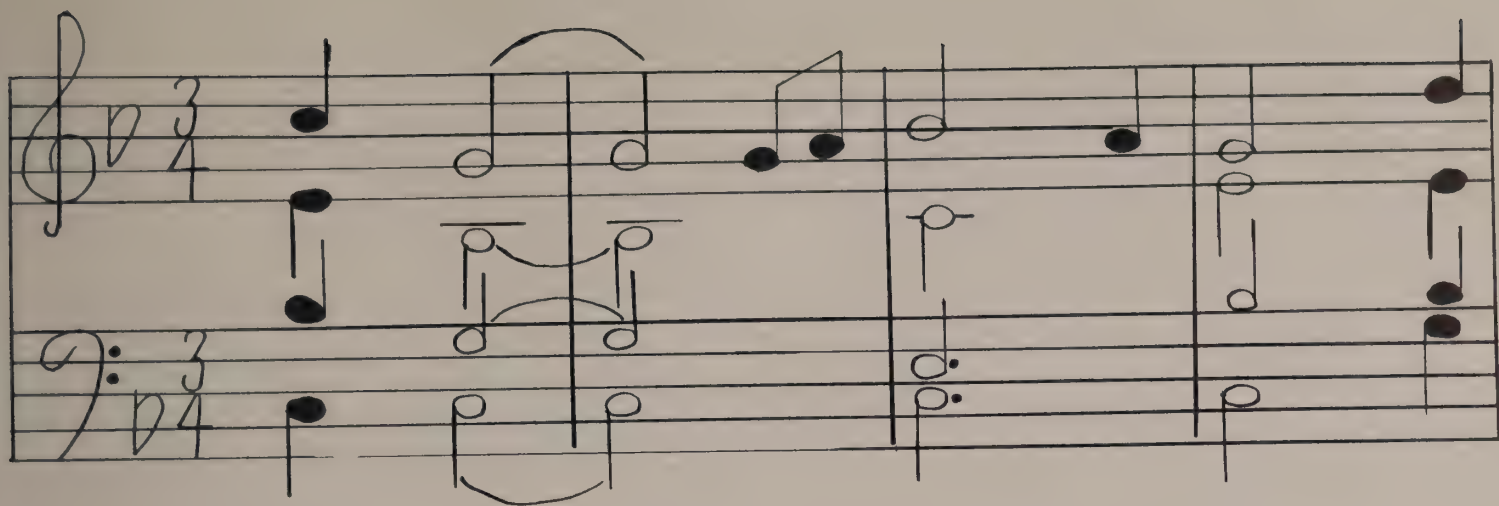

Music by: Charles Guerra

VERSE: STately

CHORUS

1st STANZA

TO THEE WE'LL SING O LUDLOW HIGH,
TO JOYS AND PLEASURES OF DAYS
GONE BY,
THE FRIENDS WE MADE AND THE
MEMORIES PASSED
WILL IN OUR HEARTS THROUGH YEARS
LAST.

CHORUS

WE SING OF THEE OH
LUDLOW,
OF YOUR LOVE AND KINDNESS
TRUE.
WE'LL REMEMBER THEE FOR-EVER,
CHERISHING THEE ANEW.

2nd STANZA

OUR FOUR-YEAR TRIP IS NOW/ ALL DONE,
WE ALL LOOK BACK ON MERITS
WON.
THOUGH FROM OUR LAND WE ALL MUST NOW PART,
IN BODY, BUT NOT IN HEART.

I. STEPHEN

ALPHABET

A is for the first two, whose names are Mary and Irene;
B is for Albert Bobowiec and a little girl named Pauline.
C is for Cavallaro and Costas, these boys are mighty witty;
D is DelMastro and Dostal, for sure you'd call them pretty.
E is for Esteves, he is so fine an athlete;
F's are Folvi and Fonseca, two boys who can't be beat.
G is for Guerra and Garrow, and quiet Kamila Gil;
H is for Harasik and Henderson, they're always "dressed to kill."
I is for each Individual, who soon the future must face;
J is for the lucky Juniors, who soon will take our place.
K is for Dolores Kivior, and our flutist Almeda King;
L is for Lazarz, good luck to our class king.
M stands for Marshall and Melnyck and Martins, too;
 McVeigh's our silent hero, and Pochy's art will do.
N is for Nascimento and Nunes, a friendly "Hello" they say.
O is for Richard Ostrowski, our great football star;
P is for Pereira and Podosek, they're always up to par.
Q is for Jimmy Queiros, an understanding guy;
R is for Reid and Rachmaciej, they never pass you by.
S is for Stephen and Santos, and the Silvas, two have we;
T is for Truchan and Tourville, good friends they'll always be.
U is for the Unity, which has brought us all together;
V is for the Victories won, in calm and stormy weather.
W is for all the Whites, Ronnie, Barbara, and Earl;
X is for the X-it we make, as we remember each fellow and girl.
Y is for our Youthful days, from our memories they'll never pass;
Z is for Joe Zych, the last one in our class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

- President Angie Sarcinelli, '51
- Vice-President Irene Alexander, '51
- Secretary Jean Millane, '52
- Treasurer Richard Ostrowski, '51
- Advisor Miss Florence M. Saulnier
- Members: John Lazarz, '51; Helen Harasik, '51; Robert Mongeon, '52; Janet Taylor, '52; Philomena Bernardo, '52; Doris Nicol, '52; Robert Mishol, '53; John Kochanek, '53; Leander Boucher, '53; Joseph Serafim, '53; Robert Nowak, '54; Stuart Smith, '54; Amy Almeida, '54; John Millane, '54.

The Student Council, which is the governing body of the school, began its term of office on September 25, 1950. One of the main social events of the year was the General Organization Ball, held after a football game on November 18. Members of the Student Council decorated the rooms for the Christmas season with greens and red ribbon. They also ushered during Open Night at the high school. These members attend various meetings of the Western Massachusetts Association of Student Councils and report on them at the meetings following. The Council sponsored a Cancer Drive and a March of Dimes drive. The council ran the Good Government Day elections. Members sell tickets and provide ushers for athletic and school affairs with the exception of Graduation. The Council hopes to send delegates to the State and the National Conventions, the latter meeting, for the first time in years, in Wellesley, Massachusetts.

President Betty Ann Tourville, '51
 Vice-President James Queiros, '51
 Secretary Barbara June White, '51
 Treasurer Almeda King, '51
 Librarian Angie Sorcinelli, '51
 Advisor Miss Olive K. Brooks

Pro Merito is a state honor Society which was founded in 1917. Members are elected to the Society temporarily at the end of the Junior year. In order to be a member of this Society, a student must have an average of eighty-five per cent for three years and must maintain that average throughout the Senior year.

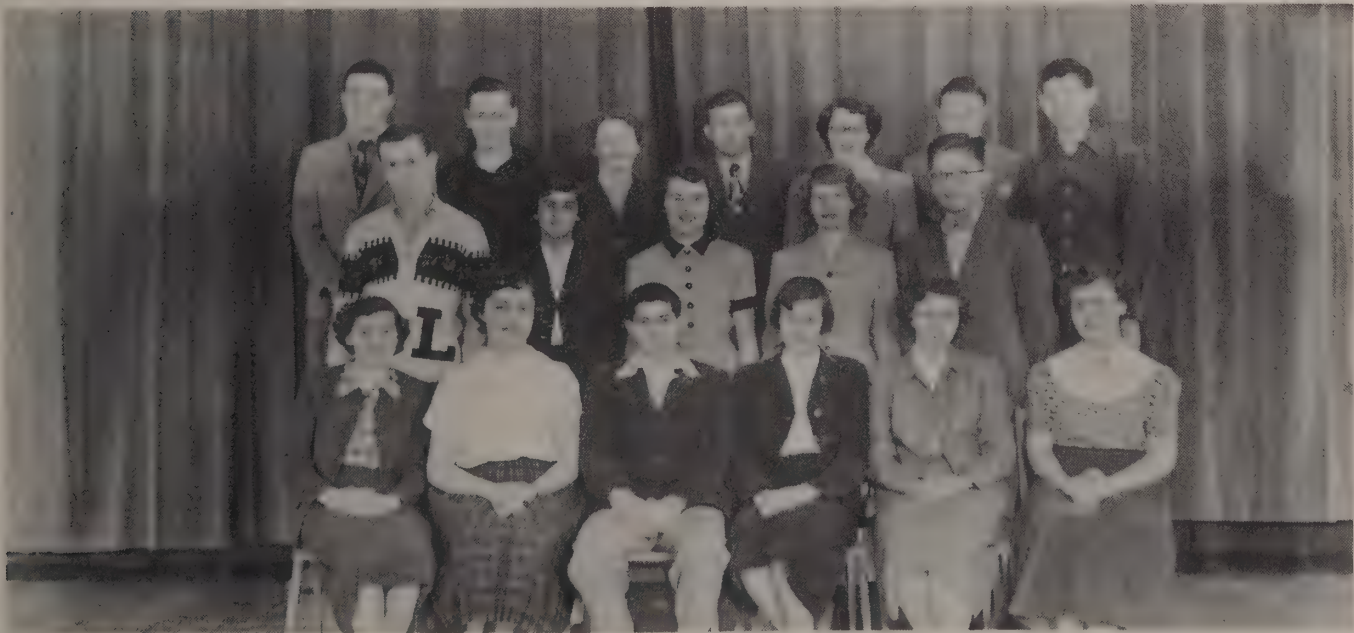

The activities of the Pro Merito this year were to introduce General Organization speakers, to care for the library, and to sell stationery and cards. They also go to regional Pro Merito conventions.

The Pro Merito Society, this year, joined the National Honor Society. Senior members are:

Norma LaFlamme
 Angie Sorcinelli
 Betty Ann Tourville
 Barbara June White
 James Queiros
 Almeda King

BAND and ORCHESTRA

SENIOR BAND

Director Mr. Archie H. Messenger

The Senior Band has played for pep assemblies and parades; it also has an annual concert at which talented members perform. This year, the band attended the Western Massachusetts Music Festival and hopes to attend the New England Music Festival in Boston. The band has also participated in contests held in various parts of Western Massachusetts and they have received excellent ratings. Football is the only sport for which the band plays. Rehearsals are held every Thursday from 1:15 P. M. to 2:00 P. M.

SOCCER

The soccer team enjoyed another successful season this fall, winning thirteen games and losing only one. They were invited once again to the Western Massachusetts High School Invitation Tournament in which they were victorious, not allowing even one goal to be scored against them in their three-game series. The school now has permanent possession of the plaque which has been won for three years; it is proudly portrayed in our trophy case.

BASKETBALL

Captain James Wilkie, '51
Manager Robert White, '52
Coach Mr. William R. Jenkins

The basketball team succeeded this season in winning eight games and losing two. This record entitled them to be winners of the Valley Wheel, this being the first time in the history of the school that they have held first place by themselves. The team also participated in the Assumption College Tournament, in which they were defeated.

MAROON KEY

President Joseph Teixeira, '50
 Vice-President Thomas Finn, '50
 Secretary—Treasurer Charles Patullo, '50

The year 1950 marked the first year that the Maroon Key Society was in existence. The group is made up of boys who have earned at least three letters in major sports and who also possess qualities that include sportsmanship, loyalty to the school, and at least average scholarship.

The activities sponsored by this club were as follows: a Senior-Underclass Basketball Game; Senior-Underclass Softball Game; the selling of school sweaters, T-shirts, and the Western Massachusetts Scholastic Sports Review; and they held the First Annual Maroon Key Banquet.

Qualifications for membership require a total of five points which may be earned by receiving a major letter which counts for one point, while a minor letter and an honor roll each count for one-half point.

Members: Robert Falconer, '50; Alfred Santos, '50; Antonio Santos, '50; Walter Mulawski, '50; Elizio Fernandes, '50; Robert Nedeau, '50; Lawrence Esteves, '51; James Wilkie, '51.

GOLF

The High School golf team, like the other teams of our school, enjoyed a successful season, winning five games, losing two, and tying one. The team played two games each with Technical, Classical, Holyoke, and Chicopee.

Players: John Nascimento, '51; Manuel Moraes, '51; Elias Costa, '51; James Queiros, '51; Americo Natario, '51. Coach, James W. Blackburn.

BOWLING

This year's bowling team is composed of six members, of whom three are seniors, two are juniors and one a freshman. The team is entered in the Springfield Public Schools Bowling League, and the matches are held at the Apremont Alleys in Springfield. Ludlow High is dead-locked with Springfield Technical for third place in the league. These two schools have both compiled identical records of ten victories and ten losses in the first round. The team under the tutelage of John Apone has hopes of bettering last year's record.

The boy's participating on the bowling team and their first round averages are:

Peter Lewicki, '51	92.7
Frank Pianowski, '54	80.3
John Martins, '52	84.3

PROJECTION CLUB

Officers: President, John Teixeira, '52; Vice-President, James Saloio, '52; Secretary, Edward Hadro, '52; Treasurer, Robert White, '52; Advisor, Mr. John Apone.

The club was formed to instruct boys in the use, care, and maintenance of audio-visual aids material.

Some of the accomplishments have been running the projectors in the classrooms, taking care of lights and stage for school activities, and arranging the audio-visual aids material. The club is now working on an assembly program to be presented before the whole school.

Members: Leo Belisle, '52; David Bennet, '52; William Donaldson, '52; David Gibb, '52; Robert Gibb, '52; Joseph Rozkuszka, Typist, '52; Robert Fiorvanti, '53.

CLASS OF 1952

Cinderella's followers of the Class of 1952 elected as officers in their first year: President, Gerald Kosecki; Vice-President, Rodney Wilson; Secretary, Janet Taylor; and Treasurer, Rose Adao. They planned the "Freshman Frolic", an afternoon dance, and a picnic at King Philip's Stockade. Both of these events were enjoyed by all members of the class.

In their Sophomore year, Cinderella's followers elected these officers: President, Rose Adao; Vice-President, Judith Miles; Secretary, Janet Taylor; and Treasurer, Eleanor Wright. Cinderella's followers held their Annual Banquet, which was highly successful.

In their Junior year, the class elected Robert Mongeon, President; Edward Hadro, Vice-President; Janet Taylor, Secretary; and Margaret Pecedonio, Treasurer. The Juniors held their first evening dance, the "Holly-Day Hop" on December 15. They are now in the process of electing committees for the Junior Prom.
